

Mannheimer General Terms & Conditions (2008) of Accident Insurance in Event of Death

Mannheimer VB-Unfall Tod '08 (as of 01/01/2008)
U_027_0108

The insurance conditions are subject to German law. The German wording alone is binding.

§ 1 Insurance benefit in event of death

If the accident leads to the death of the insured person within one year from the date of the accident the sum insured for the event of death will be paid as a lump sum.

§ 2 Special duties in event of death

In addition to the duties that must be fulfilled in accordance with § 17 Mannheimer AB-Unfall '08, the insurer must be informed within 48 hours if the accident results in death. This applies even if the accident itself has already been reported. The insurer must be granted the right to have a post-mortem examination carried out by a doctor assigned and paid by the insurer.

§ 3 Terms and conditions of the accident insurance policy in the event of death and general conditions of accident insurance

The Mannheimer VB-Unfall Tod '08 policy is supplemented by the Mannheimer AB-Unfall '08 policy and is only valid in combination with it.
