

Mannheimer General Terms & Conditions (2008) for Insurance of Daily Hospital Benefit and Convalescence Benefit

Mannheimer VB-Unfall Krankenhaustagegeld mit Genesungsgeld '08 (as of 01/01/2008)
U_029_0108

The insurance conditions are subject to German law. The German wording alone is binding.

§ 1 Insured daily hospital benefits

1. The agreed amount of daily hospital benefit will be paid for each calendar day the insured person is hospitalized and receiving essential medical treatment as a result of the accident, but not beyond the end of the third year following the date of the accident.
2. If the accident occurred in a country other than the Federal Republic of Germany and if the insured person is not resident there, twice the amount of daily hospital benefit will be paid for the duration of hospitalization in that country.
3. Stays at sanatoria, convalescent homes and health spas do not qualify as hospitalization.

§ 2 Insured daily convalescent benefits

1. Convalescent benefit will be paid when the insured person is released from hospital following medically essential inpatient treatment as a result of the accident.
2. The same amount of convalescent benefit as daily hospital benefit will be paid for each calendar day the insured person was hospitalized and receiving essential medical treatment as a result of the accident, for all periods of hospitalization resulting from one accident, but not exceeding 100 days. Convalescent benefit will not be paid at twice the rate in the event of § 1 No. 2.

§ 3 Terms & conditions for insurance of daily hospital benefits and convalescence benefits and general terms of accident insurance

The Mannheimer VB-Unfall Krankenhaustagegeld mit Genesungsgeld '08 policy is supplemented by the Mannheimer AB-Unfall '08 policy and is only valid in combination with it.
