

Mannheimer General Terms & Conditions (2008) for Insurance of Transitional Benefit in the Accident Insurance Policy

Mannheimer VB-Unfall Übergangsleistung '08 (as of 01/01/2008)
U_028_0108

The insurance conditions are subject to German law. The German wording alone is binding.

§ 1 Insured transitional benefit

1. If, six months following the accident and without contribution by other illnesses or complaints, the insured person suffers from at least 50% impairment of normal physical or mental capacity in his/her professional or private domain as a result of the accident, and if this impairment has existed continuously for that period, the transitional benefit agreed in the contract will be paid.
2. If, three months following the accident and without contribution by other illnesses or complaints, the insured person suffers from 100% impairment of normal physical or mental capacity in his/her professional or private domain as a result of the accident, and if this impairment has existed continuously for that period, one quarter of the transitional benefit agreed in the contract will be paid.

§ 2 Special duties

In addition to the duties that must be fulfilled following an accident pursuant to § 17 Mannheimer AB-Unfall '08, the insured party has a maximum of four months following the accident to register a claim pursuant to § 1 No. 2, and seven months following the accident to register a claim pursuant to § 1 No. 1. Claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by a medical certificate.

§ 3 Terms & conditions for insurance of transitional benefit in the accident insurance policy and general conditions of accident insurance

The Mannheimer VB-Unfall Übergangsleistung '08 policy is supplemented by the Mannheimer AB-Unfall '08 policy and is only valid in combination with it.
